- IMPORTANT: In the "SRJC Enrollment and Program Related Questions" section of AwardSpring, you MUST answer YES to the question "Do you plan to participate in the SRJC Study Abroad Program next academic term" in order to see the Study Abroad scholarships.
- Here are the Barcelona 2023 Study Abroad scholarships that will be available on AwardSpring (must carry at least 6 units Spring 2023, have at least a 2.50 GPA, and have "financial need"):

--Ava and Sam Guerrero Study Abroad Scholarship (2 at $2,000)

--Ruth Parlé Craig Study Abroad Scholarship (1 at approximately $1,650)

--Renate Breth, Steve Osborn, and Celeste Breth Study Abroad Scholarship (1 at approximately $500)

- Tips about the Study Abroad Scholarships:

You'll be asked to briefly answer a question about why you are studying abroad.

While there are different Study Abroad scholarships available, you won't need to write the same answers twice, but you do need to be sure to press the submit button for each scholarship.

THERE ARE STILL OTHER SCHOLARSHIPS AVAILABLE THAT ARE NOT ON AWARDSPRING:

- AIFS is offering 3 scholarships: 1 at $1,000 and two at $500.
- You must be willing to maintain a blog of some sort during the program.
- All SRJC students in the Barcelona 2023 Study Abroad program are eligible.
- The AIFS application is not available on AwardSpring and will only be available on the SRJC Study Abroad website. You can access it here: <https://study-abroad.santarosa.edu/sites/study-abroad.santarosa.edu/files/documents/AIFS%20Scholarship%20Application%20Barca23.pdf> (Note: Do not go directly to the AIFS site; those scholarships are only for individualized programs, and you do not qualify for any of those.)
- For the AIFS scholarships, you'll be asked to write why you want to study abroad in Barcelona, as well as give some ideas about maintaining a blog.
- Deadline is May 5, 2023.

To receive any scholarship or financial aid through SRJC for this program, you must maintain a minimum of 6 units through SRJC and a total of 12 units for the duration of the program.
